POLITICAL POT STARTING TO BOIL FOR 1961

The political pot began to boil again in Adams County Friday when Treasurer Clark Spence announced plans to seek the Republican nomination for clerk of courts.

At the same time there were indications that a number of local residents are seeking to interest William G. Weaver in again seeking the Burgess position he held for eight years prior to losing the election four years ago to Burgess Wilbur L. Plank.

Approximately 500 candidates will be selected by the voters at the primary scheduled for May 16.

OFFICES UP THIS YEAR
The term of Associate Judge Earl Guise expires this year as do the terms of County Treasurer Spence, Clerk of Courts Kenneth W. Johns and Sheriff Dawson R. Miller.

New jury commissioners will also be named this year along with school directors in every district, assessors in the various townships and boroughs, tax collectors in the 32 districts into which the county is divided, numerous justices of the peace, and judges and inspectors of election in the 44 voting precincts.

In addition to burgesses, the county's 11 boroughs will also elect some councilmen and the 21 townships will be naming new supervisors. Constables are also on the schedule for election this year.

With upwards of 250 to 300 posts to be filled, twice that many will be selected at the primary to provide candidates for the two parties.

HOPE FOR FULL TICKETS
Election of the numerous local candidates generally guarantees the election boards will have an all night count. Usually many of the officers have no candidates at the primaries and as a result many written-in votes have to be counted. In prior elections, there have been as high as 22 written-in names for one post.

Election officials are hoping this year there will be greater than usual demand for the posts, so that there will be candidates for most local offices—as well as the county ones—and thus cut down the "write-ins" to be counted in May. Precinct committeemen and committeewomen are generally looked to to fill complete slates.

PETITIONS FEB. 21
February 21 is the first day politicians may circulate petitions for a place on the May ballot. The county election board office reported today that "quite a number" of persons have been in the office since the reopening of the registration books following the last election to either register or make changes in address.

NAME MURREN TO C-D POST

Eugene Murren, Hanover R. 4, former chief of the McSherrytown Fire Department and present secretary of the Adams County Fire Chiefs Association, was announced today by Governor David L. Lawrence as the local Civil Defense director for Cone-wago Twp.

County CD Director William G. Weaver said today the appointment of Murren brings to 12 the number of townships which have so far secured local CD directors. The 12 are Butler, Cone-wago, Cumberland, Franklin, Freedom, Hamilton, Latimore, Liberty, Menallen, Mt. Pleasant, Oxford and Tyrone Twp.

All of the boroughs also have named CD directors, Weaver said, in urging the boards of supervisors in the remaining nine townships to make recommendation to the governor of CD directors for their townships.

Weaver explained that the local governing body recommends a man for CD director and forwards the name to Weaver who sends it to the governor for appointment. He explained that appointment of a local CD director is a "vital necessity in the event of any emergency." Under the laws governing Civil Defense if food and other supplies are frozen in event of disaster only the local CD director has the authority to allocate supplies to the people in his township or borough.

LICENSED TO MARRY
The clerk of the courts issued a marriage license today to Rex E. Baltzley, 224 Steinwehr Ave., son of Mrs. Martin E. Baltzley, 22 York St., and Miss Jean A. Griest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Griest, Gettysburg R. 3.

Church Bells To Mark Opening Of Centennial

Every church bell in America will be expected to ring at 11 o'clock Sunday morning as a symbol that the Civil War Centennial, described as the greatest commemoration ever to be staged in this country, has officially opened.

This tolling of bells, a tocsin that on more than one occasion awakened early America to a crisis, is intended to inspire residents of the United States to a greater appreciation of the privilege they share because their divided ancestors of a century ago were able to stack arms after a destructive war, lay aside their differences and work together in building the mightiest nation on earth.

To mark the occasion, President Eisenhower will deliver by radio and television from the White House a special message calling upon all Americans to participate.

In many parts of the nation, special programs arranged by the localities themselves will be given during the day. Included in the list will be rites at the tomb of General Grant in New York and General Lee in Lexington, Va.

LIBRARY ENDS YEAR IN BLACK; SLIM BALANCE

The Adams County Free Library ended the year with a balance of $30.30, according to a financial report presented Friday evening at the January meeting of the board of directors at the library.

There were a number of comments that the report showed much progress. Frequently the library has ended the year by holding up bills until it receives its first income in the new year.

The board indicated that, if it is at all possible, the former jail, now a library for more than a decade, will be sandblasted this year to remove scaled paint, point the mortar and restore the building to an exterior condition that will "last for years." Board member Donald Becker reported estimates by various sandblasting firms showed the work could be done for about $3,500.

FRIENDS TO HELP

Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh, vice president of the Friends of the Library, indicated that organization will assist with the cost. Board President C. P. Keefer expressed the opinion that funds could probably be raised by special donations to carry out the work.

Becker and the librarian, Mrs. Mary Wilson, reported mortar between the bricks has deteriorated to the point where rain is entering some upper rooms of the building during heavy storms. As a result "something will have to be done" in the near future.

The resignation of Mrs. Ira Henderson, Fairfield, as a director for reasons of health was accepted "with great regret" by the board. President Keefer praised Mrs. Henderson for her work in prior years as a board member.

TO CHANGE NAME

Attorney H. Thomas Pyle presented a resolution for formal adoption at the annual meeting of the library January 19 which will provide the basis for legally changing the name of the library from "The Adams County Free Library" to "The Adams County Public Library."

Following reading of a letter from the state librarian detailing legislation affecting libraries which will come before the current meeting of the state legislature, the board decided to seek a speaker from the state to describe the legislation at the January 19 annual meeting.

Preliminary plans were outlined for National Library Week to be held April 16 to 22. The board decided to seek a special chairman for the week to promote activities in connection with the observance throughout the county.

FIRST GRAND SLAM

"The first grand slam of this bridge game of life," he said, "was scored when God sent his Son to earth to give man an example to live by, a soul with a free choice and a faith to die by."

"I would say that that hand was perfectly bid, perfectly finessed and magnificently and overpoweringly climaxed on that first Assension Day." He went on to say that from this time on man was free to choose his own fate. "There was one little slam," he continued, "and that was when the children of Israel rose up and willingly sacrificed their lives for their freedom and gave the world the Ten Commandments to live by for all time, the start and foundation of all laws to be passed in centuries to follow. Other little slams on freedom's scoreboard were the French and American Revolutions, where people fought, were injured and died for the liberty they loved."

"Two of the greatest Americans who loved freedom were Washington and Lincoln," he continued. "Washington was first in war, first in peace and first in the eyes of his countrymen," he quoted. "Abe Lincoln was known for his deep humility and incorruptible honesty. Lincoln was the grandest figure in the Civil War."

ChoulSteals$300InGems From Body Of Woman

JACKSONVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Police today grimly began searching this central Arkansas area for the body of a girl stolen from a cemetery by someone who also looted another grave.

Police Chief Myron Traylor said the body was found missing from its grave in Bayou Metro Cemetery Friday, and probably was stolen about a week ago. He would not release the name of the girl at the request of the family.

Traylor said a grave robber took $300 worth of jewelry from the body of a woman of 28 Wednesday night and tried to pull the body out of the casket but failed.

"We have all kinds of theories on this," Traylor said, "but it's almost too morbid to even think about."

BULLETIN

HAVANA (AP) — The Cuban Defense Ministry, with forces deployed against the alleged threat of invasion, claimed today two big airdrops of U. S. arms intended for counterrevolutionaries have been intercepted in separate areas of Cuba.

A formal press announcement said the arms were dropped by planes "coming from the north" and were packed in the original crates of U. S. arms factories.

Word of the seizures came as Fidel Castro's regime took new domestic and diplomatic action—cracking down on Cubans trying to flee and sounding another overture for U. S. reconciliation once President-elect John F. Kennedy is in office.

Safecrackers Get $4,350 In Burglaries At 2 Dairies

Safecrackers burglarized two Adams County dairies late Friday night or early this morning and netted about $4,350 for their night's work, state police said today.

The Conewago Dairy on Third St., in Midway, reported about $4,000 taken while Feeser's Dairy, S. Queen St., Littlestown, lost about $350.

State police said the method of operation was similar in each case and they are convinced both jobs were executed by the same 'hugs. The officers said there were at least two men and possible three involved.

Corporal James Treas of the Gettysburg state police is working with Officer Thomas Carbaugh in the investigation of the Conewago Dairy burglary. Carbaugh is a Conewago Twp. policeman.

SAFE DOORS "PEELED"

A rear door was broken open, the office door was forced and then the office safe was turned over on its side and the door "peeled" off with chisels and other heavy tools. About $4,000 was taken from the safe and $18.50 from the cash register. Nothing else was disturbed.

The burglary was discovered about 4:30 o'clock this morning by an employee. Police said the burglary occurred between midnight, when the dairy closed, and the arrival of the first employee there this morning at 2:30 o'clock, although the safe robbery was not discovered until later.

FORCED SIDE DOOR

At the Feeser Dairy in Littlestown, entrance was gained by forcing a side door. The 450-pound safe was moved from the office into a back room where the door was "peeled" off in the same manner as at Midway. The loot there totaled about $350, including cash in the safe and some tax money removed from the cash register.

Borough Officer Edward Kolwalezky and Corporal Treas, working together on the case, said the entrance was made between the time the dairy closed at 9:30 o'clock Friday night and 1:55 o'clock this morning when the first of the morning crew came to work.

REV. MARDEN TALKS FRIDAY

The Rev. Norman Marden, pastor of the Bendersville Methodist Church, was the speaker in the fourth service of the Universal Week of Prayer observed in the Fairfield area Friday evening in Zion Lutheran Church, Fairfield. His sermon topic was "After Prayer, What Then?" He said that it is "only as the church makes a unified impact upon the world that the things which Christ left for it to do can be accomplished. It is also vital for a community to come together in a week of prayer because in doing so we learn about prayer and in such learning do we unleash the tremendous reservoir of power that awaits us in prayer."

"But," observed the speaker, "the services, inspirational though they may be, are of little value unless applied to our daily living. Christians must never stop praying. We can talk about prayer life all we want, but the world's desperate need is in having a life of prayer. The instruction by the apostle Paul to 'pray without ceasing' is more than 'pious platitudes,' he said. 'For the Christian, they are a 'directive to a way of life.'"

There was an opening hymn sung led by Rev. Otto Kroeger, pastor of Zion Church. This included the singing of many favorite hymns of the church. Mrs. Mabel G. Bream played the organ.

Pastor Kroeger offered the evening prayer and announced that the final service will be held Sunday evening in Zion Church at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Robert A. MacAskill of the Gettysburg Presbyterian Church will conclude the series with a sermon entitled "Thy Will Be Done." The worship service will be in charge of the Rev. Alfred Gotwalt, pastor of the Orrtanna EUB Church, and the choir of Mt. Carmel Church of the charge will offer special music. The public is urged to attend.

TIMES PRINTS HAWAII STORY IN NEW BOOK

How Hawaii became part of the United States, despite efforts to President Cleveland to restore its queen, is told in a 398-page book written by Dr. William Adam Russ Jr., professor of history at Susquehanna University. The 800 copies of the book put out by the Times and News Publishing Co. here today.

The hardbound book is one of approximately 50 volumes put out annually by the Times and News Publishing Co. as printers for the Susquehanna University Press, the Catholic University Press, Columbia University and others. Dr. Russ' new book is entitled "The Hawaiian Republic (1894-98) and Its Struggle to Win Annexation." Its companion volume "The Hawaiian Revolution (1893-94)" was printed by The Times and News Publishing Co. last year. The two volumes cover the history of Hawaii as it pertained to the overthrow of the monarchy and eventual annexation to the U.S.

The books reveal that the newest of the 50 states began its steps toward statehood by having an American President, Grover Cleveland, seek to restore the overthrown monarch, Queen Liliuokalani. According to the foreword in the present volume, which recapitulates the outline of the first volume, "On January 17, 1893, a group of whites, mostly American in origin, aided by United States Minister John L. Ruler, Queen Liliuokalani." According to Dr. Russ, President Cleveland's commission found "United States representatives in the kingdom had improperly used their power to support the insurgents against the legal recognized government."

Cleveland sought to restore the Queen to power, but could not get the power from Congress—which voted that "Hawaii was to be let alone."

"To the provisional government, the resolutions meant there would be no annexation until after Cleveland left the presidency at least. Therefore . . . Hawaiian annexationist must construct a more stable system than the hastily contrived provisional government. Chapter 1 explains the way by which the annexationists established a . . . republic to rule the islands until the United States changed its mind. . . . This book starts with the formulation of a permanent constitution and ends with final union between Hawaii and the United States."

Dr. Russ in his preface thanks various persons "for their continued interest and support. In addition to these three, this time I add the name of Paul B. Ramer (superintendent of The Times and News Publishing Co.) who had been uniformly pleasant, helpful and considerate. All those historians who may have worked with him and his concern, the Times and News Publishing Company, owe them a debt of thanks for furthering and undergirding historical ventures like this one. . . ."

FINAL PRAYER

"rejoicing" used in the conclusion of the book of Jude is a word used only in the Scripture and refers to a quality of joy reserved for the people who are in fellowship with God.

He related his theme to the Friday's Festival of the Epiphany, pointing out that the Wise Men "were exultant with great joy when the star led them to the candle of the Christ Child."

GIFT REQUIRES QUEST
"Joy is a gift but it requires a quest. As one is about the Master's business, giving a cup of cold water, feeding the spiritually and physically hungry, doing the works of God, He may surprise us with His joy. Joy may come to us as a surprise but it is a surprise that requires preparation."

"Christian joy should be deep and inward but it may break through to outward radiance, not with artificiality but rising from peace with God and from having seen Jesus and been with Him."

2ND BIRTHDAY IN JAILHOUSE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dr. R. Bernard Finch is 43 today and it's the second jailhouse birthday for the ex-socialist surgeon accused of murder in the gunshot death of his wife.

Court aides say he and his mistress, Carol Tregoff, 24, face at least another week of jury selection before testimony begins in their third trial. Miss Tregoff, too, has observed two birthdays in jail. Hers fall on Christmas.

Dr. Finch, who wears his thinning hair in a crew cut, now appears considerably grayer than when he was arrested July 19, 1959. That was the day after the body of his wife, Barbara Jean, 36, was found on a lawn near their fashionable West Covina home.

Since then he and Miss Tregoff, his onetime receptionist-secretary, have been tried twice on charges of conspiracy and murder. In both instances, a mistrial was declared on grounds of deadlocked juries.

KENNEDY HAS BUSY SCHEDULE FOR WEEKEND

By EDWARD LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy packed a tight schedule of conferences on politics, national and international affairs into a brief visit to Washington today.

He leaves later on what will apparently be his last extensive trip before coming to Washington for his inauguration. Even this visit to old haunts is overshadowed by glooming problems in Cuba, Laos and other parts of the world.

Arriving from New York Friday night, Kennedy went straight from the airport into an hour and a half conference with his secretary of state designate, Dean Rusk. He told newsmen later their talk covered the two trouble spots and "the whole spectrum" of foreign affairs. He gave no details, but did announce a change in his plans for a full week away from Washington. Instead he will return here for a short stay Tuesday which will include more conferences with Rusk, the retiring secretary of the treasury, Robert B. Anderson, and others.

BREAKFAST DATE
Kennedy's first appointment today was for breakfast with the Democratic national chairman, Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington.

He arranged to receive later reports from two of his task forces, one on India and the proposed peace corps of young Americans to serve abroad, the other on natural resources.

He had appointments also with Gov. David L. Lawrence of Pennsylvania and Matthew McCloskey, treasurer of the Democratic National Committee.

Finally, Gov. Ernest F. Hollings of South Carolina was invited to lunch.

After that he hoped to leave for New York.

Kennedy goes to Boston Monday for a meeting of the Harvard University overseers and other appointments, back to Washington Tuesday and then to Palm Beach presumably for the rest of the week.

A new subsidy program to encourage building of housing for low-income families and a series of more conventional measures designed to stimulate home building and urban improvements were proposed today in a report to the president-elect.

His task force on housing and urban development suggested a flexible subsidy program intended to encourage as much private enterprise as possible in the building of low-cost housing.

OTHER PROPOSALS

Other proposals included $500 million annually for college housing loans, $650 million annually for four years for urban renewal, slum clearance and related programs, $750 million over four years for community facility grants, $510 million over four years for farm housing. The report also recommended planning grants to help urban areas map their mass transit and suburban development programs.

The task force recommended another innovation which Kennedy has indicated he favors—a cabinet post for housing and urban development.

Charge Woman With Killing Husband, Dismembering Body

COVINGTON, La. (AP) — An Arkansas woman was held in jail here today after police charged her with killing her husband and disposing of his dismembered body.

Norma MacDonald, 45, was charged with the slaying of her husband, E. G. MacDonald, 73, in Mena, Ark. Police said she cut up his body, put it into a car, and drove to a house she rented two miles east of Covington.

Arkansas authorities said extradition papers would be filed today.

Deputies said parts of the body of her husband, a farmer, were found in a well near Covington. Other parts were found in the MacDonald's septic tank at their

Dear Mr. Roy:
The Women of St. James Lutheran Church, Gettysburg, wish to thank The Gettysburg Times for the splendid coverage you give our organization in the daily paper. You have always been very cooperative in publishing our activities and many times you have given them front page coverage for which we are also very grateful.

There is so much of the sordid and sensationalism that gets the headlines in many newspapers and when church news is well placed in a newspaper we feel that it is helping to advertise the fact that there are people and organizations that are trying to keep morality and the Christian way of life on an even keel.

Thanks very much for your appreciation.

Sincerely,

SAYS RUNAWAY REACTION WAS BLAST CAUSE

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP)—A runaway atomic reaction is suspected as the cause of the explosion which killed three servicemen at the national reactor testing station last Tuesday night.

In a statement issued Friday, the Atomic Energy Commission said the men apparently were killed by the force of the explosion. The statement added that if the blast didn't immediately cause death, the high radiation level could have been fatal.

"From evidence now available, there are strong but not conclusive indications that a nuclear excursion was involved in the incident. It cannot now be established whether or not there may have been an explosive chemical reaction," the AEC said.

OUT OF CONTROL
The word "excursion" generally refers to an atomic reaction which goes out of control.

The explosion was in a metal building which housed the prototype of a mobile reactor intended for use as a power source in remote areas. Radioactivity was so high inside the building that experts probing the cause could stay inside only about a minute at a time.

The victims were military technicians reportedly getting the reactor ready to start up after a 10-day shutdown. A team of AEC officials flew here from Washington to join the investigation.

MAY REPEAL IKE'S ORDER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration's order to reduce by 215,000 the number of service dependents overseas may be modified or even repealed by the next secretary of defense.

The order last Nov. 25 was part of a series of efforts to cut the U.S. deficit in the balance of international payments. It raised a storm of protest from servicemen and their families.

The unofficial but authoritative Army-Navy-Air Force Journal said Friday Secretary of Defense designate Robert S. McNamara is seeking other ways to ease the balance of payments problem.

WROTE LETTER
The publication said McNamara wrote a letter to Chairman Carl Vinson, D-Ga., of the House Armed Services Committee which suggested men might be encouraged to leave their families home by further shortening tours of duty overseas for those accompanied by dependents.

The letter to Vinson noted tours for unaccompanied personnel already are shorter than the three-year term when families go along and a further reduction may cause budget problems.

War and he is the gentlest memory.

"Two other game bids were made in Woodrow Wilson's League of Nations and the establishment of the present United Nations. In all freedom there is faith in God. Without this faith, all freedom is lost. Take the civilizations of early Egypt, Greece and Rome. They gave up God and they are now small and powerless nations in a troubled world."

ADD 7 MEMBERS
"With our freedom we also got some disadvantages or responsibilities. One of these is bureaucracy, and an example would be the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Another is taxes." In conclusion, Mr. Hartman read a composition written by a 16-year-old high school junior entitled "Democracy's Voice."

Mrs. P. J. McGlynn, chairman of the membership committee, announced that seven additional members had joined the local organization for 1961. They are: Mrs. Harold Schuh, Mrs. Bernard Rehmyer, Mrs. Paul Knox, Mrs. John A. MacPhail, Miss Joan Tate, a former CAR member; Mrs. Helen McCauslin, a transfer from the Orlando chapter, Orlando, Fla., and Mrs. Benjamin Catching, Washington, D. C.

ELECT DELEGATES
Other reports were given and Mrs. George Thrush was elected the delegate to Continental Congress to be held in April. Alternates elected were Mrs. James Oyler, first alternate, and Mrs. Guile Lefever, second.

Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, regent, announced that 41 Christmas gifts were sent to Tamassee DAR school. The program chairman, Mrs. Thrush, introduced Jack Naegle, a second-year seminary student, who sang "Some Enchanted Evening" from the stage play and movie "South Pacific" and Handel's "Where'er You Walk," accompanied by Mrs. Scott Moorhead.

Car Demolished; Occupants Unhurt

Two persons escaped injury but their car was demolished when it skidded off the Lincoln Highway two miles east of New Oxford at 8:30 o'clock this morning.

State police said Joyce C. Overbaugh, 23, 318 Ridge Ave., McSherrystown, was driving with Joseph C. Overbaugh, same address, a passenger in the 1960 sedan, when it skidded on a patch of ice.

The auto jumped over a guard rail, struck and broke off a utility pole, went down an embankment and rolled over into a field.

Damage to the car was estimated at $2,200.

Police are continuing their investigation.

CONFERENCES SCHEDULED TO END STRIKES

By EDDY GILMORE

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—King Baudouin planned a new round of conferences with leading business and labor representatives today, raising hopes of an early settlement of Belgium's disastrous 19-day strike led by Socialists.

Many observers believed Friday's wild rioting in Liege was the last violent outburst in the 19 days of tension which the Socialist newspaper Le Peuple said has cost the nation 9 billion francs ($180 million).

75 INJURED
The government radio said 75 persons were injured—47 of them policemen and firemen—in Liege battles between a mob of 1,600 rowdies and police and troops. Police jailed 28 of the rioters.

Those in power in Brussels seemed eager for a settlement, and a weekend truce was looked for throughout the country. The governor of Liege, in an effort to clamp down on further disorders, banned all public gatherings of more than five persons and forbade demonstrations.

COMMUNIST AGITATION
The government has claimed that some of the worst disorders have been the result of Communist agitation.

Spokesmen on both sides declared Socialist union strikers were not responsible for the Liege rioting.

The Socialist unions called the strikes to protest the government's austerity bill to raise taxes and cut down social welfare benefits.

The government contends the belt-tightening is necessary to balance the budget after a drop in revenues from the loss of the Congo. The Socialists say the program hits the worker.

POLICE TO END NIGHT EXAMS

HARRISBURG (AP)—State police have ended nighttime examinations for the some 195,000 motorists required to take physical fitness tests for their 1961-62 licenses.

The order went into effect after Friday night.

A spokesman said that drivers who have not taken the state police phase of the test—a check for visual efficiency and the use of hands—may do so during regular daytime hours, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily.

Under Gov. Lawrence's new highway safety program all motorists eventually will be required to take a physical examination—the eye test from state police and a more comprehensive test from physicians.

NO HAND

State police said they examined 180,000 motorists since the first annual test began Nov. 14. They said they rejected 31—30 for inadequate vision and one for lack of use of at least one hand.

Another 8,962 drivers were required to produce certificates of vision correction.

Most of the 15,000 drivers who were ordered to take the test but failed to do so, "probably have decided not to apply for renewal of their operating privileges," said Frank J. McCartney, state police commissioner.

Littlestown ZETTLE TALKS TO LIONS CLUB

Frank Zettle, Gettysburg R. 3, Adams County Farm Agent, was the guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the Littlestown Lions Club Thursday evening in Dutterer's Restaurant. He spoke on the advances of agriculture in the United States. The agriculture committee, Holman L. Sell, chairman, was in charge. Treasurer Edgar A. Wolfe gave his annual report.

Plans were announced for the Lions to attend the mission service next Thursday in a body. The group will meet at 7:15 p.m. in St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

At the board of directors' session Holman Sell and Ervin A. Rebert were appointed to represent the club in the Adams County Home Auxiliary meetings. Members were urged to return the proceeds from the sale of holiday fruit cakes to President J. Harvey Pettyjohn or Treasurer Wolfe. Preliminary plans were discussed for the Lions and Rotary Clubs to jointly entertain the local Boy Scouts in February.

The following committees were appointed for the annual oldtimers baseball game to be sponsored by the Lions at a future date: Players, Marvin F. Breighner, Richard A. Maitland and Ronald Lawhead; refreshments, Wilbur E. Mackley, Harry D. Feaser, Clayton L. Evans and Elmer W. Gall; tickets, H. Dean Stover, Edgar A. Wolfe, Charles H. Fissel and Wilson P. Greene; prizes, Robert J. Stoenisfer, Walter C. Myers, Howard O. Myers and Wilmer Dutterer.

The citizenship and patriotism committee, composed of R. J. Stonesifer, Charles Fissel and George E. Palmer, will be in charge of the program for the next regular meeting on Thursday, January 19, at 7 p.m. in the Starlite Room.

FLIER DIES IN PLANE CRASH

DOVER, Del. (AP)—An F101B fighter interceptor on a training flight plunged into the Atlantic Ocean Friday, killing 2nd Lt. Donat O. Desrosiers, 22, of Attleboro, Mass., the radar observer. The Coast Guard recovered his body about two hours after the plane went down.

The pilot of the plane, 1st Lt. Kent H. Waring, 25, of Boxford, Mass., was listed as missing by officials at Dover Air Force Base. The coast guard continued an overnight search for the missing officer. Several aircraft, which had helped in the search Friday, prepared to resume operations again today.

An Air Force spokesman here said the cause of the crash is under investigation. He said that Capt. Ralph Hoffman, pilot of another F101B jet which had taken off with the other plane, reported seeing two parachutes.

The spokesman said the plane hit the water five miles southeast of Cape Henlopen, Del., at the mouth of Delaware Bay, about 40 miles south of Dover.

61-YEAR-OLD IS BLAMED FOR 19 FIRE DEATHS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An open, inside stairway that acted as a chimney was blamed today for the swift spread of the Friday morning fire which gutted a cheap hotel midway between the downtown shopping district and skid row, killing 19 and injuring 38.

Albert Hayes, head of the city's fire investigators, said the stairway near the back of the ancient Thomas Hotel at 971 Mission St. could not be closed off from the rest of the hotel because it had no fire doors. When the fire started in the mattress of a pensioner, Raymond T. Gorman, 61, whose room was near the foot of the stairway, it roared up through the stairway to all five floors.

LAWS NOT RETROACTIVE
Present fire safety laws are not retroactive and provide no means of forcing the owners of old buildings to correct fire hazards, Hayes said.

Gorman, only slightly injured, was booked by police on a charge of suspicion of manslaughter. They said another occupant had put out one fire in Gorman's mattress earlier in the night. Gorman denied he had been smoking in bed.

ANOTHER FIRE
The fire which broke out at 5 a.m. roared up through the tenement-like squalor where 135 people had been living — some for many years — in the threadbare anonymity of the poor, the pensioned, the crippled.

Police said that in some rooms they found several bodies where the hotel's register showed only one person staying — indicating that the elderly occupants had invited their friends from skid row in out of one of the coldest nights here in recent history. The thermometer stood at 36.

License Office To Be Open Saturday

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Bureau of Motor Vehicles will be open Saturdays the remainder of this month to handle requests for 1961-62 driver's licenses.

The 1960 licenses expire Jan. 31. About two million of the more than five million licenses drivers still have not applied for new licenses.

CASTRO STOPS EXIT PERMITS FOR EVERYBODY

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's regime cracked down today on Cubans trying to flee the country and floated another pitch for a reconciliation with the United States after President-elect John F. Kennedy takes office.

The government froze issuance of new exit permits for all Cuban and foreign residents but said tourists will not be affected. American residents leaving will not require new permits to leave unless they intend to return.

The pitch to Kennedy was made by Ernesto (Che) Guevara, president of Cuba's national bank and architect of Castro's revolutionary economic policies.

SWAPS SUGAR CROP

At the same time, Guevara admitted in a three-hour television speech Friday night that Cuba swapped its 1960-61 sugar crop to the Communist bloc for political considerations. He did not say what the political considerations were.

In carrying the Castro regime's wooing of Kennedy further, Guevara emphasized that Kennedy said Wednesday he would not assume responsibility for the break-off of diplomatic relations until he took office Jan. 20.

This, Guevara said, is "important (in that it) injects a note of uncertainty on the issue. This means Eisenhower is responsible for all and that there are certain differences."

SWISS HAVE PROBLEM

"The United States should never feel small in discussing (reconciliation) with us," he said. "We always are willing but on terms of respect for Cuba's sovereignty."

Switzerland, in taking over protection of U.S. interests in Cuba, met a problem which was chronic for the now-departed U.S. diplomatic staff: how to obtain the release of American citizens held by Cuban police.

Four members of a Columbia Broadcasting System crew were picked up by Cuban intelligence agents Friday. Charges were not disclosed. The four are Bernard Eisman of Chicago, Robert Schakne of New York, Bruce Hoertel and Andrew Willoner, both of Washington.

JUNE ALLYSON WILL DIVORCE DICK POWELL

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The 15-year marriage of June Allyson and Dick Powell—an unusually durable union by filmtown averages—is washed up, her attorney says.

And when the principals part, one of Hollywood's biggest fortunes will be split up with them.

Jerry Giesler, the attorney who has led many of the town's disenchanted famous through the divorce mill, said Thursday night he expects to file a suit on Miss Allyson's behalf within a few weeks.

POWELL IN EUROPE

The actress, 37, reached later at her Hollywood home, began crying and told a newsman: "There is just nothing I can say."

Powell, 56, is in Europe on business with a partner, actor David Niven.

Giesler said a property settlement is being drawn up. No specific figures were known, but it was estimated Miss Allyson's share might be between $1 million and $5 million.

Powell has enjoyed immense financial success, not only as an actor but as a producer. He is part owner of Four-Star Productions, a prolific producer of television shows. Miss Allyson stars on her husband's TV anthology series, "The June Allyson Show."

The collapse of the marriage was not unexpected. Powell and his wife separated for about a month several years ago. Since then it has been general Hollywood talk that their marriage was in danger.

HAVE TWO CHILDREN

The Powells have two children, Pamela, 12, and Ricky, 9. This is Miss Allyson's first marriage. Powell had two previously, to Mildred Maund of Arkansas and actress Joan Blondell. Both ended in divorce.

Asked what grounds Miss Allyson would use in a divorce action, Giesler replied: "Oh, the usual—mental cruelty."

There will be no detailed allegations, he said.

Kennedy Sells His Washington Home

WASHINGTON (AP)—A young Washington couple, with a glass fortune background, have purchased President-elect John F. Kennedy's historic Georgetown home at a price reportedly more than $100,000.

Mrs. Perry Ausbrook, the former Dale Kimble of Philadelphia and Vineland, N. J., confirmed Friday what had been rumored for weeks.

"Yes, I bought the Kennedy home," she said.

She refused, however, to reveal any of the details of the deal and neither would anyone else—from Kennedy spokesman to the real estate broker.

FRENCH ARE OPTIMISTIC ON ALGIERS VOTE

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

ALGIERS (AP)—French officials beamed optimism today as the crucial referendum on President Charles de Gaulle's self-determination plan for Algeria entered its second day.

A voter turnout averaging 62 per cent Friday in 600 rural communities bolstered official hopes for approval of De Gaulle's plan to end six years of strife in this French territory.

De Gaulle has pleaded for a heavy "yes" vote and rebel leaders have called for a boycott of the polling places. French officials frankly believe a heavy vote of approval would give De Gaulle a greater chance of achieving a solution for the bloody Algerian question.

ARMY WATCHES VOTE

The French army maintained a vigilant watch today as about 570 communities voted. The army was ordered to prevent abstention.

Moslems generally disregarded orders from the rebel National Front of Liberation (FLN), officials stressed, and went to the polls.

A major test—and the possibility of violence—comes Sunday when residents of urban centers, tense with agitation by Moslems and rightwing European settlers, cast their ballots.

The settlers violently oppose De Gaulle's plan for making Algeria an autonomous state and giving the Algerians themselves political self-determination at a later date.

IS LAST CHANCE

De Gaulle warned Frenchmen the referendum will be their last chance to solve the Algerian problem. There is a risk, he said, that world events will sweep it out of their hands.

Thousands of battle-equipped troops took positions at strategic points in and around Algiers after a 10 p.m. curfew silenced the city Friday night.

Troops camped in front of government buildings and steel-helmeted patrols crisscrossed the streets.

Five plastic bombs planted by anti-Gaullist rightwingers had exploded in the city earlier in the day.

Today's Talk

IT'S WHAT YOU FEEL
It isn't the thing you do that counts most, but what you feel as you do it.
Your sincerity of heart will tell all about you. In the office where you work, you will stand apart as a worker. If you write, people will feel as you have felt. If you speak, your words will lodge and stay to uplift and inspire. If you paint, the very picture itself will live and breathe anew in the eye of everyone who looks upon it.
It's what you feel in expression that is imperishable.
I recently looked upon a beautiful Rembrandt. So warm were his colors, so rich his form, that Rembrandt stood alive before me.
There is one thing that cannot be disguised, and that is your feeling. It is the real thing about anyone.
The books, the paintings, the buildings—no matter what—that were wrought in sincerity of spirit are those which live and which,
in their turn, have inspired all mankind.
Your friend whom you love, regardless of any fault, is of great worth to you because you know
the honest feeling controls his life.
You know that he is dependable.
It is impossible to do anything of a lasting nature that is not sincere with feeling behind it.
Remember, it is what you feel that is going to make you great
—or happy.

Hospital On ACS Approved List
For '51: The Warner hospital has again been approved by the American College of Surgeons, according to the announcement made today by Dr. Paul R. Hawley, director of the ACS. The local hospital has been on the approved list for many years. It is one of 3,290 hospitals in the United States, Canada and some other countries approved as of December 31, 1950.
The approved hospitals on the new list represent 82 per cent of the hospitals of 25 beds or more which are under survey by the college. Approval is in two classifications, fully approved and provisionally approved. The Warner hospital is in the former category.

Prayer Week Services Are Opened Sunday: "The Need for a New Spiritual Awakening" was the subject of the first sermon in the union Week of Prayer series
by Dr. Rufus D. Bowman, president of Bethany Biblical seminary at Chicago, in the Presbyterian church here Sunday evening.
The church was well filled for the service which featured special music by the St. Andrew's choir, made up of members of the choirs of the Reformed, Methodist and Presbyterian churches under the direction of Philip McGuire, organist and choir director at the Presbyterian church.

New School At Bendersville Is Used Today For First Time: For approximately 200 Upper Adams jointure school youngsters, today was moving day.
The children, who had been going to school at the Bendersville four-room school at the Firemen's hall in Bendersville and at Locust Grove school near Aspers, were being transported from their regular schools to the newly built $139,000 building con-

Current Off For Nearly An Hour: Two burned off Metropolitan Edison "feeder lines" at the corner of West Middle and South Washington streets put most of Gettysburg in "darkness" from 11:08 this morning until 12:05 this afternoon.
Metropolitan Edison company officials said there appeared to be no particular reason why the feeder lines burned through at the pole. The "dead" sections of wire, beyond the burned-through section, fell into a tree. The wires burned through a foot from the pole, leaving the "live" wires attached.

Lions To Hold Zone Meeting:
Approximately 140 members of Fairfield, Gettysburg, Upper Adams and York Springs Lions Clubs will meet January 16 at Biglerville for a meeting of Zone B, Region 4, District 14-C of the Lions.
Paul F. Hoffer, Millersville, former governor of District 14-D of the Lions, will be the principal speaker. Cyrus Bucher, Big-

YOUR STATE'S GOVERNMENT

Glamor Of Washington, D. C., Decries From True Importance Of State Governments

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior TOO MANY PEOPLE this inaugural season have their eyes focused on Washington, D. C.
Distance lends enchantment. The presidency is the top, glamorous job of a glamorous and powerful nation. Hence the gaze of all toward Washington is natural.
But most of the new laws that touch the daily lives of the great masses of American people through the next four years and after will be signed by state governors. Most governors are likewise being either inaugurated for the first time or re-installed for new and continuing terms in their high offices.
And the laws they sign will be enacted by state legislatures consisting of two bodies. The larger is normally referred to as the house, or the assembly. Some older states cling to colonial and historic names. The smaller house of the typical state legislature is the senate. The typical state senate has thirty to fifty members.
The house usually has three to four times as many members as the senate. The state senators are usually elected for four years;
the legislators in the house for only two.

THE GOVERNORS, old and new, will be meeting their legislators, many of them new, this month. Some state legislatures are being organized publicly or quietly for the coming, regular sessions, right now. And in these sessions, which will last anywhere from 60 days to 10 months, absolutely anything that anyone might believe to be for the welfare of the people can come under review.
A state legislature can formally request the U.S. Congress to United Nations, if it wants to.
But recommend and request is about all it could do with reference to that or any other question in foreign affairs.
Would Congress pay any attention to such a resolution from a state legislature? From only one state, no; but should 25 states pass substantially the same request or recommendation in the same legislative session, the U.N. would be in trouble insofar as the United States is concerned.
And with American paying most of the bills, that would be real trouble.

There is hardly an elected official in Washington, or a top level appointed official, who does not keep a weather eye cocked on the legislative sessions of not only his home state, but also those of the states adjoining it.
The powers and influences of the state legislatures are greatly underestimated, most particularly by some cynical political scientists and those who focus their attention almost entirely upon trends toward international organization.

THE GOVERNORS and state legislators, however, have so many things to worry about much closer home, that they are not so prone today to tell Congress and the President how to do their jobs as they once were.
Usually, state legislators are paid considerably less than full time salaries, but local and state demands upon their time are always increasing. Hence there is the natural desire to get the legislative session over with and get back home where they can give adequate attention to their business or professional affairs in order to earn a normal living.
Some states even have limits
as to the number of days the lawmakers can sit in regular sessions. This also injects a pressing time factor.

THE BIG PROBLEM confronting all state legislatures, and to this general statement there appears to be absolutely no exception, is the budget and where to find the sources to meet its demands. They are all hard pressed to create a tax structure that will support the demands for highways, welfare, courts and law enforcement, penal institutions, asyllums, regulatory agencies and for paying the most staggering
bill of all—education.
But the children are here and 60

ORDER NEGROES
ADMITTED TO GEORGIA UNIV.

MACON, Ga. (AP)—A federal judge's order for the immediate admittance of two Negro students to the University of Georgia sparked a minor demonstration and presented the Legislature with its gravest problem in years.
An effigy said to represent Hamilton E. Holmes, 19, one of the Negroes, was hung from an arch at the all-white University in Athens Friday night. Later a small cross was burned in front of a hall near a freshman dormitory.
Newsmen said only a few of the younger students took part and estimated the watching crowd at 150. There are 7,400 enrolled at the university.
The gathering broke up quickly
when Dean of Men William Tate appeared and began asking for student identity cards. No incidents were reported and no arrests made by four city policemen present.

LAST REGISTRATION DAY

The demonstration occurred as members of the State Legislature were preparing to go to Atlanta for the start of the 1961 session Monday. That also is the final day to register for the winter quarter at Georgia, oldest state-chartered university in the nation.
Holmes, of Atlanta, said he wanted to consult with his parents before deciding whether he would enroll Monday. At present he is attending Morehouse College in Atlanta.
The other Negro student, Miss Charlayne Alberta Hunter, 18, also of Atlanta, and she planned to go to Athens "as soon as I can—probably Sunday."

Miss Hunter is studying journalism at Wayne State University in Detroit.
OPEN TO OTHERS
In ordering the students admitted, U. S. District Court Judge W. A. Boodle ruled the university had discriminated against them because of their race. The decision Friday also permanently enjoined the institution from barring other eligible Negro applicants.
The ruling presented legislators of this Deep South state with the most serious desegregation crisis since the U.S. Supreme Court outlawed public school segregation in 1954.

BEJEWELED CROWN

Archbishop Alexei, past 80 but sturdy, stood in his golden robes and a glistening bejeweled crown, in the center of the cathedral.
Around him were rows of metropolitan, bishops and priests also wearing gem-studded crowns.
Czars worshipped in this cathedral before the revolution and Archbishop Alexei has come down through the years from that early day when the church was rich, when its leaders spoke on even terms with the Czar and all Russians lived under its mantle.
But years of Communist domination has changed all that.
Enamel cups, not the old crystal or silver glasses, were used to dip holy water from founts to pass out among worshippers. Royalty was long since gone, replaced by about 2,000 workers and peasants.

Warriors' Thrilling Rally Upsets Cedar Cliff 58-44; Jayvees Take Prelim 29-26

A tremendous comeback after trailing 36-26 with 4:10 minutes of play remaining in the third period carried the Gettysburg High Warriors to a hard fought 58-44 victory over Cedar Cliff Friday evening before a large crowd.

After rushing to a 7-1 lead in the first three minutes of play, the Warriors bogged down with the visiting Colts taking command on some superb rebounding and pulling steadily away. At half time Cedar Cliff was on top 27-21.

Dan March, 6-3, a former Gettysburg resident, dropped in five comparatively easy lay-ups as the Colts piled up a 36-26 advantage midway in the third period and appeared to have the situation well in hand.

Suddenly the Warriors shook off their lethargy. They controlled the boards, made steals and swept the invaders aside with a dazzling display of fire and spirit to pour 12 straight points through the basket on a goal and four fouls by Greg Maitland and a pair of long chunks by Howie Miller and Maitland to take the lead which they never relinquished. Going into the final quarter Gettysburg led 40-39.

BRILLIANT FOUL TOSSING

The Warriors were deadly from the foul line and their first six points in the final period came on a pair of conversions each by Miller, Waddell and Maitland. That made the score 46-39 with 5:44 remaining. Steve Farrow finally landed a long shot for the visitors with Mark Eckert retreating with a Warrior goal. After Bob Kohr hit on a corner shot the Warriors took to possession play and that brought on fouling by the desperate Colts with Gettysburg landing six of its final 10 points on near-perfect foul shooting.

During the final 12:10 minutes of action the Warriors outscored the Colts 32-8 and overall made 18 of 23 foul tries.

FINE TEAM EFFORT

Once again it was a well-balanced attack that spearheaded the Warrior victory and all of the regulars put up fine games, particularly during their late drive.

The victory was the sixth in seven outings for Coach George Forney's outfit while the loss was but the third in 10 games for Cedar Cliff.

Merle Eckhart's junior varied their record at 3-3 by taking the preliminary in a close battle 29-26.

PLAY AT CARLISLE

Gettysburg will be idle until next Friday when they play at Carlisle in a South Penn League doubleheader.

Indians Increase Lead To 19 Games

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The red-hot Springfield Indians were so far out front in the American Hockey League race today that it's doubtful that even a complete collapse could derail them.

The Indians lead the second-place Cleveland Barons by a fat 18 points—nine full games.

Just to let the Barons know who was boss Friday night, the Indians whipped Cleveland, 4-1. In the process they snapped a proud Barons streak of eight straight home victories.

It also marked Springfield's fifth victory over Cleveland in seven games this season.

The Barons took the lead on a first period goal by John Ferguson. Gerry Foley tied it for the Indians late in the second period.

Then the Indians went to work in earnest in the third period. Foley, Ted Harris and Jim Anderson all fired home goals to wrap it up.

No other league games were scheduled Friday night.

Littlestown, defending Adams Division champs, ran into another poor shooting evening when they dropped a 48-39 game at Scotland in an Adams-Franklin League game Friday evening. The Bolts connected on but 16 of 74 shots while the Cadets caged 20 of 62.

Scotland also led in rebounding 48-43. After an 8-8 first period, Scotland took a 22-16 lead at half time and was on top the rest of the way. Larry Weikert of Littlestown topped all scorers with 20 points. The Cadets have a perfect 4-0 record in the Franklin Division.

Fairfield High spurred in the late minutes to defeat New Oxford 60-53 on the winner's floor. At half time Fairfield was on top 28-25 but the Colonials spurred to deadlock the score at 51-51 midway in the final frame only to have Fairfield bounce back with its winning rally. Joe McCauslin and Mike Smith each contributed 21 points for their respective teams. The victory was the first in league competition for Coach Jack McAndrews' squad.

Bermudian squeezed past Quincy 46-42 in a thriller at East Berlin. The Eagles jumped out to a 15-2 lead in the first period and then saw their lead melt away as the Spartans finally moved ahead 37-35 early in the fourth period. Bermudian recovered on the scoring of Craig Hoke to take the decision. Hoke wound up with 25 points.

St. Thomas breezed to its fourth straight victory by crushing Fannett-Metal 76-33.

SQUABBLING DEVELOPS FOR GRID PLAYERS

DALLAS (AP)—Signings again are plaguing the National and American football leagues.

Dallas of the AFL and Detroit of the NFL are arguing over Ronnie Hartline, Oklahoma fullback. Houston of the AFL and Baltimore of the NFL are squabbling over Ken Gregory, Whittier, Calif., end.

Last year, as the AFL was making its start, there were a number of court cases over double signings. But those all were based on the NFL signing the boys before their college eligibility was over.

CONTRACT OFFICIAL

The AFL won all the cases. This time it's different. Hartline was signed by Lamar Hunt, owner of the Dallas Texans, on Dec. 7, but he didn't specify exactly what sort of document it was.

Hartline, in Honolulu to play in the Hula Bowl, said he signed with Detroit after he signed a "letter of intent" to play with Dallas and that he considered the contract with Detroit as official.

Hunt said Detroit would have to file any court action that results over Hartline unless the player reports to the Detroit camp.

Bullet Mat, Swim Teams At Home Today

Four Gettysburg College athletic teams are scheduled for action today, the swimming and wrestling teams opening their seasons this afternoon at 2:30 in home engagements.

Jack Ridinger's Bullet wrestlers meet Lycoming in the Eddie Plank gymnasium.

The Bullet swimmers, under Curt Coull, tangle with Loyola (2-0) in the pool of the Student Union Building. Loyola has defeated Fordham and won a triangular meet with Holy Cross and St. Peter's. In Ken Freimuth, the Greyhounds have the Mason-Dixon Conference 220-breaststroke and 200 butterfly champion and record-holder in each.

Tonight the Gettysburg basketball squads will meet Lehigh in a freshman-varsity doubleheader at Bethlehem. The Bullet varsity is 6-2 while Lehigh is 0-6. Gettysburg's freshmen are 4-2 while the Lehigh yearlings are winless in two engagements against Delaware and St. Joseph's.

The team that plays the Fighting Irish in North Carolina tonight lists eight players from the New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey area, a well-stocked hunting ground for Atlantic Coast Conference bird dogs.

The powerful NCAA Council will hear McGuire and two other North Carolina representatives answer questions Sunday on whether the university has recruited basketball players beyond permitted limits.

McGuire, a pro of 12 years standing, said he will determine whether I will go on further, said Basilio, 33, a pro of 12 years standing.

Idle since he was stopped for the second straight time by NBA middleweight champion Gene Fullmer last June 29, Basilio was rated just even money against the tall Mexican. Earlier in the week, Carmen had been the 7-5 choice.

The South holds a 6-5 edge in the Senior Bowl series. The 50 college seniors make their professional debut in the all-star game, although most already have signed pro contracts.

The North offense is built on the passing of quarterback Dick Norman of Stanford. Fullback Roger Hagberg of Minnesota will be called on to keep the South defenses honest with up-the-middle rushes.

Byers, executive director of the NCAA and a member of the council, would not even confirm McGuire's scheduled appearance. But it is known that McGuire and others from North Carolina appeared before the council at meetings in San Francisco and Kansas City this year.

Byers did say progress was being made

1917 Farm Show Far Cry From Modern Exhibition

HARRISBURG — When the Pennsylvania Farm Show was started in 1917, competitive exhibit classes were provided for the best ten ears of corn grown by a boy or girl under 18 years of age.

This was open to all boys and girls, and no doubt some members of what is now known as 4-H Club participated in it.

Both the Farm Show and the 4-H program have grown by leaps and bounds since that first farm show when only $735 in premiums was offered to the 440 exhibitors.

HUNDREDS PARTICIPATE

Today, all of the nearly 45,000 members of the 2,600 4-H Clubs in the Keystone State have an active interest in the Farm Show, and hundreds of them will be showing off their steers, lambs, dairy cattle, corn, potatoes, tobacco, honey, eggs, capons, turkeys and scores of homemaking projects.

It was the 4-Hers who first thought of selling baked potatoes at the Farm Show. In the 1923 demonstration, which was held in the old Emerson-Brantingham Buildings, on Market St., disease-free russet potatoes were baked and sold by the 4-H youngsters. The potatoes which were dabbled with a chunk of butter, and well salted and pepper, sold at five cents each. The object of this 4-H demonstration was to prove the quality of Pennsylvania grown spuds. The Pennsylvania Potatoes Growers Association took over the 4-H activity in 1925, and since then it has grown to its present mammoth proportions.

It wasn't until 1926 that the 4-H boys and girls brought their baby beef and lamb shows to the Farm Show. That year Adams County brought in 48 head of Herefords, and there were 18 pens of lambs brought in by 4-H'ers from several counties.

USED GARAGE

These animals were housed in a garage on S. Cameron St. and the exhibit continued there for several years. Judging was a rough job, for sometimes it was done in an alley or side street in the Farm Show's traditional days of rain, snow and slush. Sometimes, too, the judging was moved out on Cameron St. and it wasn't unusual to see members and their steers dodging streetcars and other traffic.

Before the opening of the new Farm Show Building in 1931, most dairymen hesitated to bring cattle to the show because of unsatisfactory shipping, housing and showing conditions. In order to have a wider representation for dairying, the 4-H Dairy Clubs for several years brought only taken educational exhibits of 4-H dairy animals to the show. Special emergency insurance was carried on the animals to lessen the risk of the young showmen.

As the 4-H participation grew from year to year, exhibits of various departments were housed with the adult exhibits — some in garages, skating rinks and dance halls — which were scattered around Harrisburg.

MAKESHIFT LOGGINGS

Early 4-H exhibitors didn't have the advantage of the present day dormitories either; they were housed in lodge halls in downtown Harrisburg, where they slept on cots borrowed from the Pennsylvania National Guard.

In the 1961 Farm Show starting next Monday, January 9, there will be about 160 dairy animals shown by 4-H members. All of the animals were selected at local, county and district eliminations, and at the Junior Dairy Show last September.

Four-H members will help make the annual livestock parade the spectacle it always is, for there will be 128 beef animals shown by members from 18 counties: Adams, Berks, Blair, Bradford, Butler, Carbon, Chester, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Jefferson, Lancaster, Lebanon, Montgomery, Northampton, Schuylkill, Snyder and York.

ONLY THE TOPS

Members in Pennsylvania raised 902 beef animals during 1960 but only the top winners in district livestock shows will be brought to the Farm Show.

Four-H members from six counties will be showing their cowboy prowess, too, for 50 boys and girls from York, Lancaster, Delaware, Dauphin, Cumberland and Juniata Counties will bring their horses to the show for demonstrations and races. The 4-H horse events will be held Thursday evening, January 12, with competition in egg races, pole bending races and barrel races. The Delaware County 4-H'ers will give a demonstration on training jumpers and the Cumberland County equestrians will give a drill team demonstration.

GIRLS BUSY TOO

There'll be 26 pens of 4-H lambs on exhibit, from eight counties: Blair, Bradford, Berks, Centre, Lancaster, Lawrence, Montgomery and York. The annual potato grading and identification contest will give three-member teams from 12 to 15 counties a chance to show their ability at grading potatoes and spotting defects.

Next Thursday at 5 p.m. the annual safe tractor driving contest will include five top 4-H drivers. The five were picked for their outstanding ability at district meets during last summer. The winner of the Farm Show contest will represent Pennsylvania at the Eastern U.S. 4-H tractor operations contest at Richmond, Va., early next fall.

Girls who comprise the membership of Pennsylvania's homemaking clubs will be very much in evidence, too, with their hundreds of exhibits of canned and baked goods, child care, skirts, cotton dresses, jumpers, blouses, school dresses, party dresses, etc. Last year there were 600 entries in clothing alone, and indications are there will be as many for the 1961 show.

New Budget Will Forecast Surplus

WASHINGTON (AP) — The budget President Eisenhower will send Congress before leaving office will be bigger than this year's and will forecast a surplus next fiscal year of at least $600 million.

Authoritative sources, in giving details, said the increased amount in the federal 1962 budget will mostly cover defense outlays.

Eisenhower will send his annual budget measure to Congress on Jan. 16. President-elect John F. Kennedy will take office Jan. 20. His administration and Congress will make changes in the budget.

Insurance statisticians say that of the 7,300 death from fires and other burns in the United States each year, about 5,700—or nearly four-fifths—occur in the home.

Livestock Grading Service Considered For This Year

By FRANK S. ZETTLE

Adams County Farm Agent

The State Department of Agriculture may begin a livestock grading service in 1961. The proposed grading service was requested by some producer groups and would be similar to the service provided by a few states to the South. Whether it will be started depends on the industry.

Livestock producers and market agencies may increase their incomes if they use the grading system. As proposed, the grading service would be voluntary. This means that those markets desiring grading service would request and pay for the state grader's services. When livestock is graded all animals are sorted into lots. All animals in a given lot would be of the same general quality. Past experience in grading has shown that grading of a commodity tends to decrease misunderstandings between buyers and sellers.

To acquaint producers, market agencies, and meat packers with the stake each has in grading and to explain the proposed grading service seven meetings are scheduled this month. Two of these to be held in adjacent areas are: January 18, 1:30 p.m. — Chambersburg, YMCA, S. Sixth and McKinley Sts. January 17, 7:30 p.m. — Lancaster, John Neff Elementary School, four miles north of Lancaster on Rt. 501.

Those interested in the livestock industry in Pennsylvania should plan to attend the meeting in this region. It will "help decide whether Pennsylvania initiates a livestock grading program, which could be a controversial issue. Poor attendance at the meetings could indicate there is little or no interest in a grading program."

CUT COSTS DURING 1961

The poultryman's return for labor, capital investment and risk is affected by the production cost per dozen eggs or per pound of meat and the market price he can obtain for his product. The following practices are suggested to help cut costs as well as insure a top quality product:

Keep production per layer at a high rate; this helps cut feed as well as total costs per dozen eggs. Manage meat stock for maximum growth; this helps cut feed cost as well as total costs per pound of meat.

Reduce case outlay for feed-stuffs and lower feeding costs by better use of locally grown grains and high quality pastures.

Insure high quality eggs through sound farm practices and frequent marketing. Aim for 90 per cent "A" grade or better.

Operate as close to full housing capacity the year 'round as proves practical for the operation. Start some chicks in cold weather to supply more eggs during the period of highest prices for that size, and the greatest price spread between large, medium and small sizes.

LABOR SAVING DEVICES

Use labor saving devices and practices wisely; make sure the investment actually frees labor for more gainful uses; that labor costs per dozen or per pound will be reduced, and that returns will readily amortize the added investment.

Adapt existing buildings for maximum results depending on production system used, provided additional investment will lower production costs and can be amortized from increased returns.

Keep good records and study them to correct errors in judgment and management as well as to reduce costs and increase net returns.

Eliminate all causes of waste.

START STUMP CONTROL
Winter is a good time to use chemicals on brush and stumps. Chemicals will give more effective root kill now than at any other time of the year. The kill is especially effective on trees such as oak, maple, ash and basswood.

Using a basal or dormant spray in winter takes away most of the worry of damaging growing crops with the chemicals and there is less field work to compete for the farm labor.

The material should be put on the bottom 18 inches of the standing trees, or stumps of cut trees. Thoroughly wet the bark. Continue to put on the chemical until there is a little run-off down the side of the tree.

A hand sprayer with a cone type of nozzle does the best job, but a power sprayer and a paint brush can be used satisfactorily. Use either of two chemicals: One is the ester form of 2,4-D, and the other is a mixture of the ester form of 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T. Use about a two per cent concentration, and use one pound of the chemical to eight gallons of fuel oil. Applying the chemical in winter is a little more expensive than a summer spray, because the work must be done by hand, but it is a good winter-time job.

Army Has "Law" To Hurl Against Tanks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army will have the law to hurl against onrushing tanks.

"Law" — lightweight antitank weapon — is the unofficial name of a new featherweight rocket displayed Thursday. A single soldier can carry it in clusters like a quiver of arrows.

Army ordnance experts say there isn't a known tank that would not be knocked out by "Law."

The complete unit—rocket and launcher—weighs only 4½ pounds and has a punch equal to the 3.5-inch bazooka which weighs 13 pounds and requires two men to handle.

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Among the 90 Eskimos enrolled at Haskell Indian Institute here is Charles Snyder, 22, of Nome, Alaska. He's studying refrigeration and air conditioning.

BEST POTATO GROWER NAMED

HARRISBURG — With production of 873 bushels of potatoes an acre, Ervin R. Hersey, Stewartstown R. 3, York County, is the Pennsylvania state champion potato grower for 1960 according to returns reported to the Farm Show Commission by the Pennsylvania Co-operative Potato Growers Association.

The new champion came within 64 bushels of the all-time state record set in 1950 by E. O. Mastlin, Bucks County, with 937.

Hersey grew 43 acres of Kennebec potatoes on his 250-acre farm. The phenomenal yield was checked on a five-acre field by County Agent John T. Smith. Another York County farmer was state champion last year, Lester Hain of New Freedom, who grew 656 bushels per acre.

This is the first year that Hersey grew more than 400 bushels of potatoes per acre. He thereby qualifies for membership in the Keystone 400-Bushel Potato Club, oldest agricultural production club in the United States. It started in 1922 and now has 1,436 members.

WILL RECEIVE EMBLEM
Along with nine other Pennsylvania potato growers Hersey will receive the coveted 400-Bushel Club gold emblem at the 45th potato industry banquet in Zombo Mosque here on January 12 during the Farm Show.

Second highest yield of potatoes per acre in 1960 was attained by Charles Bender, Lincolnway East, Chambersburg, Franklin County, with 818 bushels of Katahdins per acre.

A member of the Future Farmers of America, James L. Hertzler of Elversburg, Chester County, had the third highest yield in the state, 791 bushels, giving him first place in the youth division and a 400 Club medal.

Farm Calendar

More Roses — You'll have more blooms on your roses this summer if you delay any pruning until March, remind Penn State extension floriculturists. This practice applies to all roses except the climbers, which should be pruned after they bloom.

Be Prepared — Best defense against a farm fire is a good fire extinguisher located in the right place. Ralph Patterson, Penn State extension agricultural engineer, suggests every farm and home be equipped with suitable hand extinguishers that are properly maintained and easily reached if needed.

Guard Fruit Trees — Rabbits get mighty hungry in winter, and one of their favorite targets is fruit trees. Carl Bitner, Penn State extension pomologist, suggests using wire cylinders of hardware cloth, at least two feet high and loose enough to keep rabbits away from all parts of the tree trunk. Use a stake to prevent the wire from rubbing the trunk.

Care For Battery — Cold weather puts an extra load on the battery of your tractor, truck or automobile, and Penn State extension agricultural engineers say it is especially important to have the battery fully charged to take care of every need.

Skating Helps — Skating on the farm pond benefits fish life, according to Robert Wingard, extension wildlife management specialist. Skaters keep the snow cleared, thus permitting some sunlight to penetrate the ice and water beneath.

Costs Higher — Because of the increase in the average size of farms, expenditure per farm will continue to rise in 1961, according to extension farm management specialists at Penn State. Item that will tend to keep costs higher will be interest rates, taxes, wage rates and new machinery.

Don't Put Lamps In Windows, Economist Tells Homemakers

By MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

A lamp centered in the picture window may rob you of three things. You may lose the pleasant informality of bringing the outdoors into the room. A lamp and table centered in the window crowd out the feeling of space that picture windows can offer. The correct use of table and light is reduced.

Mrs. Tunison

A lamp's chief purpose is to provide light for a specific activity, such as sewing or reading. Night lighting for the picture window side of a room might better be built-in indirect light which is suitable for general lighting.

Many tables and lamps are centered for the outside appearance. But most houses are informal in balance, so formal centering of lamp and table detracts from appearance. Reading and conversational furniture groupings, carefully arranged to take advantage of the outside, add to the spaciousness the picture window provides.

A well-arranged room is equally attractive from the inside and outside. Much of today's furniture is beautiful in scale and design from all sides. Don't hesitate to place a well-designed chair or sofa so it may be seen from the picture window if it provides a comfortable furniture arrangement.

GUIDES FOR SALES

Wise shoppers at clothing sales buy only the things their families need. Here are a number of suggestions that may help anyone become a better shopper.

Take a good look at the clothes the family now has. What garments are worn the most? Which ones seldom or never? Answers to these questions may be the key toward planning a better and more satisfying wardrobe.

Try making a record or written plan of clothing replacements needed within six months or a longer period. Long range planning may assure more careful and wise spending of money if based on family needs and income. More expensive articles, such as a coat, need careful planning.

Become familiar with the store and the merchandise it stocks, so you will know when a bargain is a bargain.

The way a garment fits is important if it is to look and wear well. Don't buy clothing if it does not fit or cannot easily altered. High style and fad clothing are usually not for the workaday average family. It's possible to keep up-to-date within a limited budget, but it takes careful and proper planning.

ORANGES GOOD EATING

Once a luxury item only at Christmas, oranges have become common fare. Now they add color, flavor, appetite appeal, and nutritive value to meals the year-round.

Oranges and other citrus fruits are top sources of Vitamin C. This vitamin works with other nutrients to build strong bones, healthy gums, and repair wounded or burned tissues. Vitamin C isn't stored in the body, so you need it every day. One orange will supply the Vitamin C recommended daily for an adult.

Oranges and orange juice are breakfast favorites, but fit well into other meals, too. Add chilled orange chunks to tossed, chef's, Waldorf, and coleslaw salads. Orange gelatin made with orange juice and chunk-full of bite-size orange pieces makes a tasty salad or dessert.

Orange cups may add a festive touch to the dinner table. Cut off the top of the orange, scoop out the pulp, and notch the edges of the cup. Fill with cranberry relish or hot mashed sweet potatoes garnished with tiny marshmallows. If desired, the filled potato cups may be put under the broiler just long enough to brown the marshmallows.

For a quick dessert, sprinkle coconut and confectioners' sugar over orange slices. Most people know this dessert as ambrosia.

Sewer Explosion Hits Midtown Erie

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Downtown Erie was rocked by a series of underground explosions Friday night.

The blasts flipped manhole covers high into the air and sent flaming metal splinters showering over a shopping area.

No one was injured. Firemen said sparks from some circuit underground high tensions wire ignited sewer gas and touched off the explosions.

The short circuits were caused by high water which had clogged the sewers following a heavy thaw, firemen said.

Erie officials could not determine immediately how much damage the blasts caused.

CIVIL WAR TV SERIES STARTS SUNDAY ON NBC

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It's 100 years since the start of the Civil War but television is fighting it all over again.

NBC-TV is launching its new hour-long Civil War centennial series "The Americans" on Jan. 23, replacing "Riverboat."

The show was originally called "The Blue and The Gray" but the NBC sales department ran into sponsor resistance with that title. Spokesman commented: "Some sponsors felt that the title was repugnant to the South. Don't ask me why."

Frank Telford, NBC executive producer who developed the series, said he liked the original title better at first but now leans to the new one.

"I'm a Civil War buff and a lot of the other buffs I know believe 'The Americans' is a better title. It was a war fought between Americans who each deeply believed in a principle."

The pilot show brings this out. Darryl Hickman and Dick Davalos, the stars, portray brothers from Harper's Ferry, Va., whose principles differ.

HISTORICALLY ACCURATE

Their split—Hickman to the North and Davalos to the South—is played against the capture of the government arsenal at Harper's Ferry when the Virginia Militia 450 strong rode against 45 Union soldiers defending the arsenal.

Telford says that battles and incidents of the war will be historically accurate.

"They have to be," he says. "Too many people checking."

Australian-born Ron Randall plays the commanding officer of the Virginia Militia in the pilot—but then you can't get much farther south than Australia.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

THE KOENOVER (CONOVER) FAMILY

The genealogical notes on the Koenover (also spelled Couenover, Cownover and Conover) family of the Low Dutch Colony of the Conewago are continued at this time.

Jan (or John) and Cornelius Cownover, who were probably brothers, emigrated from New Jersey to what is now Adams County, Pa., a few years before the outbreak of the war of the American Revolution, and became a part of the Low Dutch Settlement of the Conewago.

Jan (or John) Cownover and his wife, Catriena Covert, are buried in the "Upper" Low Dutch Graveyard and their graves are marked. In the same plot there are at least four unmarked graves—perhaps more. It is very possible that Cornelius Cownover and his wife, Catriena Degraft, are also buried here.

According to the baptismal records of the Dutch Reformed Church of the Conewago, Cornelius and Catriena (Degraft) Cownover were the parents of at least three children as follows:

1. "Baptized September 7, 1783, Gerrit Cownover, the son of Cornelius and Catriena (Degraft) Cownover."

2. "Baptized April 9, 1786, Samuel Cownover, the son of Cornelius and Catriena (Degraft) Cownover."

3. "Baptized November 8, 1789, Antie Cownover, the daughter of Cornelius and Catriena (Degraft) Cownover."

Of course the family of Cornelius and Catriena (Degraft) Cownover probably included more than three children, for large families were the rule instead of the exception in that day, but only three are listed in the records.

In the files of the "Adams Sentinel" (later the "Star and Sentinel") the following data pertaining to the Cownover family can be found under the dates given.

1. Wednesday, March 1, 1815 "Married Tuesday, February 21, 1815, by the Rev. William Paxton, D.D., Mr. John Cownover to Miss Polly Chamberlain, all of this county."

Note: John Cownover (second of the name) was a son of Jan (or John) and Catriena (Covert) Cownover. The baptism of John Cownover is recorded in the records of the Dutch Reformed Church of the Conewago. Polly (Chamberlain) Cownover was a member of the Chamberlain family of the Presbyterian Church of Lower Marsh Creek.

2. Tuesday, May 17, 1831 "Married Thursday, April 14, 1831, by the Rev. Charles Gill McLean, of this place, Mr. William Young to Miss Catharine Cownover, both of Mountjoy Township, this county."

FAMILY BURIAL PLOT Note: Catharine (Cownover) Young was the daughter of Jan (or John) and Catriena (Covert) Cownover, according to the baptismal records mentioned above. It is interesting to note that members of the Young family are buried in the "Lower" Low Dutch burial ground.

3. Tuesday, November 15, 1831 "Died Tuesday, November 1, 1831, Levina Florado Cownover, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Cownover, of Mount Pleasant Township, this county, aged 11 months."

Note: This child was a granddaughter of Cornelius and Catriena (Degraft) Cownover, the daughter of their son Gerrit (or Garret) Cownover. It is very likely that this baby is buried in the "Upper" Low Dutch Graveyard in an unmarked grave.

4. Tuesday, May 21, 1832 "Died Saturday, May 19, 1832, at an advanced age, Mr. John Cownover Sr., of Mount Pleasant Township, this county."

Note: John (or Jan) Cownover, pioneer settler, who emigrated from New Jersey to Pennsylvania, John Cownover Sr. and his wife, Catriena Covert, are buried in the "Upper" Low Dutch Churchyard.

DIFFERENT DEATH DATE

It will be noticed that there is a difference of one day in the date of John Cownover's death as given in the published obituary and the one cut on his gravestone. After so many years it is impossible to determine the correct one.

5. Tuesday, September 4, 1832 "Heirs and legal representatives of John Cownover, deceased, late of Mountjoy Township, this county, viz: William Cownover, Garret Cownover, Mary Cownover intermarried with Daniel Stag, Hannah Cownover intermarried with John Coshun, Jane Cownover intermarried with Abraham Houghtelin (the said Jane (Cownover) Houghtelin died before her father leaving lawful issue, Maria Houghtelin intermarried with Daniel Diehl, John C. Houghtelin and Catharine (Houghtelin), Emily Cownover intermarried with William Ferguson, John Cownover (who died before his father, leaving lawful issue, David Cownover, a minor), Catharine Cownover intermarried with Joshua Bercaw, Letty Cownover intermarried with Robert McKenney, and Betsey Cownover intermarried with David Chamberlain (said Betsey (Cownover) Chamberlain died before her father, leaving lawful issue, Mary Ann Chamberlain and Hannah Chamberlain)."

Note: This record is absolute proof that John and Catriena Cownover were the parents of 10 children instead of five, the number baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church of the Conewago.

Of the children listed above Hannah (Cownover) Coshun is buried in the Presbyterian Graveyard of Lower Marsh Creek. The inscription on the marker at her grave is as follows:

3. "In memory of Hannah, consort of John Coshun, died March 4, 1833, aged 59 years."

The notes on the Cownover family will be continued in this column next week.

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP)—The "yeti" scalp got back to the Khamjung monastery on the promised day after being taken on a 30,000-mile round-the-world trip by skeptical Western explorers.

A U.S. helicopter carried the scalp and Mr. Everest hero Sir Edmund Hillary here. He had borrowed it from villagers for a one-month inspection by experts to determine if it came from a yeti, the legendary "abominable snowman" of the Himalayas.

The Western experts agreed the scalp was ancient but they discounted its connection with the elusive yeti.

SIX ARRESTED FOR $200,000 EXTORTION BID

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Six men are being held on charges of attempting to extort $200,000 from a Washington banker and his wife. Five of them also face federal charges stemming from a series of armed bank holdups.

Robert Quarture, 20, of Lawrence, Washington County, is accused only in the extortion scheme.

State police Friday identified the other five men as Joseph Rozane, 23, of Meadownland; Carl Thomas, 26, and Michael DeBlasio, 27, both of Canonsburg; Ronnie Mego, 21, of Schenley; and James Jackson, 21, of Leechburg.

ONE TALKED

State Police Capt. Ernest Moore said Peters Twp. Police Chief George Thomas apprehended one of the men on a minor charge Wednesday night. Moore said the man talked and the others were arrested.

Moore said the six men lived in a rented house at Bagdad, near Leechburg. Two pistols and shotgun were found in the house, but none of the robbery money has been located, he said.

The extortion attempt, was made against Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Talbert of Peters Twp. last Nov. 19. Talbert is branch manager of the Mellon National Bank in Washington.

ANOTHER ROBBERY CHARGE

Rozane, Thomas, Mego and DeBlasio also are charged with taking over $8,000 from the Cecil branch of the Bridgeville National Bank last Sept. 1.

Rozane, Thomas, Mego and Jackson face charges of conspiracy to rob the Slovenian Savings and Loan Association in Strabane, near Canonsburg, the Peoples National Bank of Rural Valley, and the First National Bank of Leechburg.

The five are accused in a $4,300 armed robbery recently at a Natrona Heights recently.

EXTORTION SPOT

Bond was set at $10,000 each for Rozane, Thomas and Mego and $5,000 apiece for DeBlasio and Jackson.

Police, explaining the extortion plot, said Mego entered the Talbert home and tied up Mrs. Talbert. He then telephoned her husband and told him to place the $200,000 in a package and leave it at a designated spot along U.S. 19 near Donaldson's Crossroads.

However, Mrs. Talbert filed the attempt by freeing herself and telephoning police after Mego left the home.

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — An Atomic Energy Commission team arrived Thursday night to join the investigation of Tuesday night's fatal nuclear reactor explosion.

Loren A. Olsen, an AEC member, told a newsman the facts of the case "will be made available as soon as they are definitely learned."

The explosion on the AEC's reactor testing station in eastern Idaho killed three servicemen.

Lost Trunk Of Early 19th Century Found In N. Oxford

A deerskin-covered trunk owned by Christian Wirt, Hanover merchant of the early 19th century, has been rescued after many years from a New Oxford barn, cleaned, restored and presented as a gift to two of his descendants.

The old trunk, with the name "Cristian Wirt" printed on the bottom, was a part of the Eichelberger family possessions. It was recently salvaged by Mrs. William D. Himes, 303 Lincolnway East, from the property of the late Catherine Gitt Himes, widow of William A. Himes, New Oxford.

The chest was lined with newspapers of 1800 from York and with other periodicals of that era, which are now in Mrs. Himes' keeping.

TRUNK RENOVATED

After renovation, the trunk was given to Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Winebrenner 3rd, Hanover R. 1, each a grandchild of Christian Wirt several generations removed.

The original owner was a son of German-born Henry Wirt, who emigrated to America in 1738. Christian was born May 12, 1763, near Iron Ridge Station, on land purchased by his father in 1750. Henry Wirt's tract was obtained five years after Richard McAllister became owner of the land on which the original town of Hanover was built.

In the year Christian Wirt was born, McAllister laid out his farm into lots in order to establish a town.

Employed as a saddle and harness maker as a young man, Christian Wirt in 1800 purchased from McAllister's heirs property on the east corner of Center Square and Baltimore St., Hanover, where he established a dry goods store. For many years the site was known as Wirt Corner. He retired in 1816. In 1826 he served as a town councilman.

HAD SEVERAL CHILDREN

Christian and his wife, Eva Catharine Gelwicks Wirt, had several children: Henry, Jacob and William; Maria, who married Jacob Eichelberger; Catharine, wife of George Emmert; Lydia, later Mrs. Adam Forney, and Deliah, wife of Dr. George W. Hinkle.

After Christian's death March 2, 1842, the trunk was apparently passed on to Jacob and Maria Wirt Eichelberger; later to their daughter, Ann Amanda, wife of Abdiel Gitt, and later to William A. and Catharine Wirt Gitt Himes, parents of the late William D. Himes.

Mr. Winebrenner, who is the husband of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Himes' daughter Elizabeth, is a descendant of Christian Wirt's son Jacob.

Mrs. Himes reports that she also has in safekeeping several other early-Hanover pieces which were stored in the Himes barn. One, a small black chest, inscribed with the brass-studded initials "A. L." and lined with newspapers of 1816, she believes to have been the property of her late husband's maternal grandparents, Christian and Anna Von Up-den-Graff Lanius, both born in York in the 1770s.

SHIZUOKA, Japan (AP) — Defense Director Naomi Nishimura says new U.S. dollar saving measures will delay for a year Japan's start on a new five-year defense program. It cannot get under way, he said Thursday, until the amount of American military aid established a dry goods store. For

GENTLE MAN QUESTIONED IN SLAYING

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Authorities assigned to a New Jersey murder case are in town to question a young man tearfully described by his bride as "a gentle person" incapable of killing.

In custody is John Dillon, 25, held in connection with the slaying of burglary suspect Vincent Blaney.

Blaney's body, wrapped in chains, was recovered last August from the ocean near Margate, N. J.

PROGRESS NOT KNOWN

Asst. Prosecutor Morgan E. Thomas of Atlantic County and Detective James R. Brennan of the New Jersey State Police arrived in Los Angeles Thursday afternoon—less than 24 hours after Dillon was apprehended by the FBI.

What progress, if any, the officers may have made in their interrogation has not been learned.

FBI agents said Dillon had been married only two weeks when they arrested him Wednesday night. He was driving a shiny new sports car.

GENTLE PERSON

Mrs. Dillon told officers:

"I didn't know he was a hunted man and I'm sure he didn't know it either."

"He's a gentle person. He couldn't possibly have murdered anyone, let alone tie him in chains and throw him in the ocean."

"I'm sure he can prove he wasn't in New Jersey at the time. He was right here in Los Angeles."

Dillon was jailed in lieu of $50,000 bail. Authorities said a hearing in the case, originally set for Jan. 11, may be speeded up in view of the early arrival of New Jersey officials.

AGREED TO TESTIFY

The FBI said Dillon has not indicated whether he intends to fight extradition.

New Jersey officials say the murder victim had agreed to testify for the state in the trial of several defendants in a $478,000 burglary Aug. 9, 1959 at the home of coal firm executive John Rich, Pottsville, Pa. Another defendant, who had likewise reportedly agreed to testify, was shot and stabbed at a Camden, N.J., bus stop, but recovered. He is Robert Poulson, 24.

Murder Hearing To Be Held Feb. 13

LAS VEGAS (AP)—An unemployed cook charged with murder in the Christmas Eve strangling of his wife will receive a preliminary hearing Feb. 13.

"I loved her too much," detectives quoted Byron Ashbrook, 36, as saying of his wife, Betty, 36. "I had a good reason for doing it; a personal reason."

Police had arrested Ashbrook three times on his wife's complaints that he threatened to kill her.

Ashbrook and the former Mrs. Betty Jane Puffer came here last summer from Newark, Ohio, to get married.

He was arraigned on the murder charge Thursday.

LABEL MRS. JFK BEST DRESSED IN THE WORLD

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy tops the best-dressed in the world of women's fashions, but her president-elect husband is low man on some clothes designers' totem pole.

The lovely first lady-to-be was selected Thursday night by the New York Couture Group, Inc., to head the list of the world's 12 best-dressed women. Couture annually consults some 2,500 style experts and society leaders before announcing the winners.

As for the president-elect, his current supply of suits were viewed with some anxiety by members of the International Association of Clothing Designers who gathered at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel Thursday for their 50th annual convention.

SCORE JFK CLOTHES

Some opinions on Kennedy's dress:

His coat lapels are of the old-fashioned, wide variety.

The shoulders of his suits are much too broad.

There are only two buttons on his jacket and the two buttons are too low on the suit.

After Mrs. Kennedy, the official 1960 list of best-dressed among the world's women names the following:

Vicomtesse Jacqueline de Ribes, of Paris.

Mrs. Norman K. Winston, of New York and Paris.

Donna Marella Agnelli, of Turin, Italy.

NEWSPAPERS' CIRCULATION 58 MILLION

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Daily newspaper circulation in the United States has increased 52 per cent in the last 25 years while the nation's population has grown only 40 per cent.

The figures were given Friday by Stanford Smith, general manager of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Today's total daily circulation, he said, is 58 million. In 25 years it will be 81 million, he forecast.

Smith told a 25th anniversary meeting of Allied Daily Newspapers of Washington in a prepared speech that in 1935 the population of the United States was 127 million, the total circulation was 38 million and the total advertising volume was $762 million.

"The latest annual figures cover the year 1959 when total newspaper advertising volume was $3.54 billion. This is a gain of more than $2.75 billion," he said.

"Newspaper circulation grows because the service rendered to readers is not available from any other source and not likely ever to become available from any other source," Smith said.

"Newspaper advertising volume grows on the basis of a service to advertisers which produces results on a consistent, day-in, day-out basis."

FAGS UP ONE CENT

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—Cigarettes cost a penny a pack more today as the state's tax raise went into effect.

Proceeds of the one-cent increase will be used to finance construction of state institutions.

Voters will decide by referendum in November 1961 whether to replace the tax with a $30 million bond issue. If the referendum passes, the tax will expire July 6, 1962.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

Imprisoned in England for his faith at the age of 25, William Penn wrote: "My prison shall be my grave before I will budge a jot, for I owe my conscience to no mortal man."

Persecution did not daunt the spirit of the Quaker who founded Pennsylvania. It made him resolve there would be religious freedom in his new land, "because no people can be truly happy tho' under the greatest enjoyment of civil liberties, if abridged of the Freedom of their Consciences." Pennsylvanians enjoyed civil and religious liberties, and helped pass them on to us through the Constitution. Indians responded to Penn's brotherly love.

Pennsylvania was Penn's "holy experiment" where government was for "the good of mankind."

New B52 Bomber Has More Punch

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—A new model of the B52 bomber with more power and more punch is ready for the Air Force.

The first B52H rolled out of the Boeing Airplane Co. plant here Thursday. Perched beneath its wings were two test models of the Skybolt, an air-launched ballistic missile.

Both the range and the thrust of the B52H will exceed that of its predecessors, B52G. Eight jet engines provides 17,000 pounds of thrust, an increase of about 4,000 pounds. Without giving any details, the Air Force said the B52H will have 10,000 miles more range.

The Skybolt missile can fly 1,000 miles after leaving the bomber. This is twice as far as the Hound Dog missiles mounted aboard the B52G. The Skybolt is scheduled to be ready for combat use in 1964.

URGE FEDERAL SCHOOL FUNDS

NEW YORK (AP)—A special task force recommended to President-elect Kennedy Friday a high-priority program to pump $3½ billion in loans and grants into the American educational system. The objective would be to "lift the schools to a new level of excellence."

The plan would provide extra federal cash for all public schools, for construction, and for teachers' salaries or other purposes related to improving education. It would provide a special program along similar lines for states in economic distress. And it would set up a special aid plan for city schools.

In addition, increased grants and loans to improve academic facilities and housing at colleges and universities was blueprinted for the president-elect.

The task force which drew up the recommendations was headed by Dr. Frederick Hovde, president of Purdue University.

Swartz and Mrs. Delores Zeigler, Mrs. Betty Bloodworth were invited into membership. The next meeting will be held Wednesday.

The East Berlin Fire Company will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The East Berlin Lions Club will meet Tuesday at Zwingli's social room.

INCOME TAX CUTS STUDIED BY KENNEDY

By MARVIN ARROWSMITH

NEW YORK (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy has under study a call for temporary income tax cuts in the spring if the business slump takes a serious turn for the worse.

The call was sounded Thursday night by a committee appointed by Kennedy to evaluate the state of the nation's economy. It recommended that the new administration act swiftly to put into effect a sheaf of emergency measures designed to achieve recovery without resort to tax reductions in these times of international crisis.

The study group, in a report sprinkled with indirect criticism of the Eisenhower administration's handling of the business fall-off, said these measures are urgently needed now.

"NO BLIND ADHERENCE"

And the committee, headed by economist Paul A. Samuelson of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, said there should be no blind adherence to a concept of a balanced budget in times of business recession.

Kennedy, who recently expressed concern about what he termed lack of vigor in the economy, had no immediate comment on the report.

It was made public after he had reviewed the document with Samuelson; Dr. Walter W. Heller, University of Minnesota economist chosen to be chairman of the incoming president's Council of Economic Advisers, and James Tobin, Yale University economist, whose appointment to the council was announced by Kennedy Thursday night.

OTHER MEMBERS

As the other member of the three-man council, Kennedy named Kermit Gordon, the Ford Foundation's director of economic development and administration.

The president-elect plans to fly late today to Washington for a series of business conferences. The first is scheduled tonight with Dean Rusk, who will be secretary of state in the new administration.

Kennedy intends to return to New York Sunday morning for more pre-inaugural meetings.

It's making a man of him

Many a dad points with pride to the benefits his son is deriving from newspaper route management.

Under the guidance of men who are interested in and trained to work with boys, it channels youthful energies into an "on-the-job" training program that teaches them:

- how to make money (and an appreciation of what to do with it);
- how to get along with people;
- the importance of service and punctuality;
- the thrill of making a sale.

Only about one boy in ten gets this opportunity. If you think your son might profit by newspaper route experience, why not suggest that he come in and talk to us?

It's the greatest part-time job available for youngsters today according to Educators, Civic Leaders and Juvenile Authorities.

SHORTS AND ANECDOTES

THE HAPPY collaboration of Jackie Cooper and Don McGuire, co-producers of the popular "Hennessey" comedy-drama series, came about because of a 1946 softball game in Hollywood.

Cooper and McGuire, who had never met, both played a game with Frank Sinatra's "Swingers" against Andy Russell's "Softballers." They became good friends. Some years later, McGuire conceived the idea of a series depicting a Navy doctor's adventures and the project was realized with the appearance on the CBS Television Network of "Hennessey," starring Jackie Cooper (Mondays, 10:00-10:30 p.m.). P.S. The "Swingers" won the game.

GEORGE TIBBLES, writer-operator of the "Bringing Up Buddy" comedy series on the CBS-Television Network (Mondays, 8:30-9:00 p.m.), got his start in show business as a piano player and song writer.

Props Are Biggest Problems In "Roaring 20's"

By PAUL GERARD

The task of assuring authentic backgrounds and props in any production usually falls to the "propman" and his assistants. Because "The Roaring 20's" is an era that is within the memory of millions of people including most of the production staff, the job of assuring this authenticity has paradoxically become more difficult.

As Morris Goldman, master of properties, pointed out, "We could get away with an anachronism if this series had an 18th Century setting. But not the 20's. Since so many of us actually lived through the years, even the smallest details keep popping up. For instant, just as the director was about to call 'Action!' to start the cameras rolling on a scene recently, he called a halt to the proceedings and rasped: 'What's that you're writing with, Donald May!'"

HAD WRONG PEN

The carrot-topped star looked up at the sharp tone and replied evenly, "Why, I'm using a pen."

Donald, looking at the writing instrument in his hand, grinned sheepishly, and stashed it in his pocket.

"Props!" yelled the director. "Clean this place out—get rid of all ball point pens."

Morris Goldman handed May a fountain pen, circa 1920, and the scene went on.

"It's little details like this that could ruin us," Goldman said, with mock seriousness. "Everything we use in this series must be an original or exact duplicate of the things extant in the period . . . or we're asking for trouble from a whole horde of viewers who set themselves up as technical advisors."

"STRICTLY PERIOD"

The extreme care of the studio to keep everything strictly in period includes the size and shape of bottles used for bootleg gin, the hip flasks of the period which must be manufactured in the studio's metal shop, watches and other jewelry, types of cigarettes, various types of locomotion (besides old autos), communication devices (including stand-up telephones) and, obviously, furniture and clothing.

Goldman, who has worked at Warners for some 31 years and researched for such films as "The Spirit of St. Louis," acknowledges that "The Roaring 20's" presents more authenticity problems than any of his previous assignments.

"I've had some stumbers in my time," he said, "but I guess the most unexpected problem in connection with 'The Roaring 20's' arose when I discovered that some musical instruments had undergone quite a change between the 20's and the 60's."

Dorothy Provine with costars Donald May and Rex Reason

MANUFACTURE INSTRUMENTS

"The basic structure of trumpets hasn't changed at all, but saxophones and guitars — which provides the heart of the combos of the 20's—were considerably different in structure. As a result, we've had to manufacture some musical instruments."

Goldman keeps a "bible" or reference volume within reach at all times to quash all disputes that arise on or off the sets. Called "The Firsts," it lists the birth dates of every imaginable invention, gadget or other wise decorative or functional object.

Dorothy Provine, co-star of "The Roaring 20's," never presented the production staff with any problems of authenticity.

In Hollywood, where the term "way out" is considered one of the highest compliments, chic Dorothy Provine is loudly proclaimed a "way back" girl—and she loves it.

Although she wasn't born until the fabulous Twenties had faded into memory, the petite blonde has a flair for "Flapper" fashions.

"She is the 20's" according to Warner Bros. wardrobe chief Michael Hart, who has the responsibility for keeping Dorothy in beads and spangles for the series.

AFFINITY FOR ERA

Dorothy, who plays Delaware "Pinky" Pinkham, New York night club entertainer, agrees enthusiastically:

"I do have a weird affinity for the era, but how or when it started is a mystery. My mother has a marvelous flair for clothes and she certainly gave me a love of style and design. But at the same time, I certainly wasn't exposed to much 'flapper' atmosphere."

Dorothy's television wardrobe, authentic to the last stitch (circa 1924-1931), features short skirts, cloche hats and beads—pounds of floral designs, ropes, jets, bugle and chiffon beading, all Paris imports.

Of the more than 20 beaded gowns she wears in early episodes, her favorite is a silver-beaded, spangled knee-length sheath with beaded straps and straight neckline, in which she dances an uninhibited version of the "Black Bottom."

This gown was completely hand-beaded in some 240 hours at a total cost of $1,500. The matching hand-beaded coat is luxuriously lined with 14-karat gold lame.

"I would love to have any and all of 'The Roaring 20's' outfits in my own personal wardrobe, but this silver gown is really the cat's pajamas," purred Dorothy.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

The word "Salad" actually means green leaves or stalks that are eaten uncooked. Salad is not a modern dish as many believe, but was used by the Early Romans in their feasts. The origin of the meat and fish salads we serve today was an English dish called "salamagundi." This meat dish was made with many garnishes. The French influence is seen in the dressings used in our salads resulting in "French Dressing." The Spaniards introduced peppers into our salads; the Mediterranean countries added garlic to theirs. In the United States, we combine all these different recipes to make salads one of our most popular foods.
